

NGUYEN TRUONG THANH TAM

Assistant Brand Manager

Dear Hiring Team from my future company,

My name is Nguyen Truong Thanh Tam (Tamy), & I am thrilled to write this cover letter to apply for the Assistant Brand Manager at your company.

The Assistant Brand Manager role aligns perfectly with my career aspirations. My goal is to become a globally Experienced Brand Marketer within the next two years, & this position offers a valuable stepping stone toward that goal. With a solid background in Marketing, & a keen understanding of B2C & B2B segments, I am confident in my ability to contribute significantly to your team.

Throughout my four years of experience in Brand Marketing, I've honed my skills in Brand Management, Market Research, & Communication. My primary strength lies in my ability to rapidly acquire, & apply knowledge across various domains to gain valuable insights. This combined with my strong customer understanding skills, & ability to deliver key brand messages to target customers, allowed me to develop, & execute more strategies confidently, helped to enhance brand love, & cultivated a loyal customer base.

With my proven track record in Marketing, & Brand management, coupled with my passion for building Brand Love, I am the most fitting puzzle for this position. I am here - with you - to conquer all the future purposes of moving the brand forward through the power of Marketing.

Thank you for considering my application. I'm eager to discuss how my skills, & experience can contribute to your company's continued success. Please take a closer look at my resume, attached, & website portfolio via QR below. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Nguyễn Truong Thanh Tam
